Tot Dies After Falling Into Pail Hot Water

Keith LeRoy Ainsworth, 19-months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ainsworth, died in the Greybull hospital yesterday morning after falling into a pail of hot water at his home near Burlington Sunday.

The parents said Mrs. Ainsworth had prepared a pail of hot water with which to scrub the floors. The youngster was attempting to climb onto a bed when he fell backward into the pail of water.

His mother immediately rushed the youngster to the Greybull hospital, a distance of 19 miles. The father was not home at the time but neighbors summoned him and he went immediately to Greybull.

Services will be held at the Worland Baptist church Thursday at 2 p. m. The body is at the Veile mortuary. Burial will be in the Ten Sleep cemetery.

He is survived by his parents and one brother, Charles Ainsworth, age three.
