

Obituary: Jeffrey Kent Allred, Northern Wyoming Daily News, Worland, Wyoming, page 2.

WORLAND ---- Jeffrey Kent Allred, 49, died April 3, 2005 while riding his motorcycle south of Worland.

He was born Dec. 7, 1955 in Billings, Mont., to Howard Stanley and Carol E. (Bunnell) Allred.

He lived with his parents in Billings until 1959 when the family moved to Utah, where they lived at Logan and Salt Lake City. In 1961 the family moved to San Bernadino, Calif., where Jeff graduated from Pacific High School in 1974.

He then worked for a modular home manufacturer in Fontana, Calif., before moving to Phoenix, Ariz., where he attended Universal Technical College.

He received a certificate in automotive technology after two years in Phoenix, then moved to Casper where he worked for a well head company and as a manager at MiniMart.

In 1981 Jeff moved to Worland to work for a local motorcycle dealer.

Jeff then went to work for Crown Cork & Seal in March of 1985 and was a chemical process operator at the time of his death. He was also a shop steward for his shift for the Steel Workers of America.

Jeff married Linda Rollins, and they later divorced. He and Elvira Richins had been companions for the past year.

He loved Harley-Davidson motorcycles and the freedom he felt with them. He also lived to read, collect books, listen to rock music, NASCAR and to work on his home.

Jeff was preceded in death by his father and grandparents, Golden and Clara Allred and Dr. O. E. Bunnell.

He is survived by his companion and significant love, Elvira Richins of Worland; mother, Carol B. Allred of Worland; step-mother, Dawn Allred of Ten Sleep; brother, Jay B. Allred of Sheridan; sisters, Terri (Lloyd) Craft of Worland and Jennifer (Clint) Bartels of Rifle, Colo.; stepchildren, Amanda Sanchez and Rani Nomura, both of Colorado, Samantha Richins of Worland, Jessie Prescott of New York, Kevin Rollins and Traci Felker of Worland; and nieces and nephews, Jessica Allred of Sheridan, Lindsay, Michele, Jarod, Kaleb and Elizabeth Craft of Worland, Valarie Loudan, Trevor, Blair and Daniel Bartels, all of Rifle.

Services will be held Wednesday, April 6 at 2 p.m. at the First Baptist Church in Worland with Dr. Fred Smith officiating. Burial will follow at Ten Sleep Cemetery at 4:30 p.m.
