Rouse Wellington
Anderson

Rouse Wellington Anderson, 80, died in Ten Sleep March 8 of an apparent heart attack.

He was born Nov. 17, 1892 in LaBelle, Mo., the son of Albert and Hettie Anderson. He married Lulu Arnold June 4, 1925 in Ten Sleep.

Anderson grew up in Ewing, Mo., and attended Kirksville College before going to work as a teacher for six years. After a brief visit in Wyoming while a rifle instructor in the Army in World War I, he returned following his discharge and went to work as a bookkeeper for Shaw-Quinn Construction on the old Highway 16 through Ten Sleep Canyon, and for the Ten Sleep Mercantile before entering into the ranching business with the purchase of the Woods and Fiscus ranches. He retired in 1958 to serve as Ten Sleep postmaster, and retired from that last June.

He was a member of the Baptist Church and a charter member of Masonic Lodge No. 46 of Ten Sleep. He served as a member of the school board for 16 years and was on the Soil Conservation Board.

Survivors include the widow; three sons, Robert of Torrington and Gene and James of Ten Sleep; two daughters, Mrs. Keith (Shirley) Thurman of Lander and Mrs. James (Sally) Marten of Seward, Alaska; and 13 grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Monday at 2 p.m. in the Ten Sleep Methodist Church with Rev. Billy Bowden officiating. Burial will be at the Ten Sleep Cemetery with Masonic graveside rites. Veile Mortuary is in charge of arrangements.

Memorials may be made to Ten Sleep Methodist Church Building Fund.

Sally "Pat" Anderson Martin

TEN SLEEP — Ten Sleep resident Sally Patricia Anderson Martin, 80, died on Saturday, Sept. 8, 2012 at Billings Clinic Hospital in Billings, Mont surrounded by her family.

Sally was born Sept. 27, 1931 in Ten Sleep, a daughter of Rouse Wellington and Zula Grace (Arnold) Anderson. She was raised on the family ranch near Ten Sleep and attended Ten Sleep schools.

She then attended the University of Wyoming where she graduated with a degree in elementary education. Sally then taught all grades K to 6 for the next 30 years including 20 years in Alaska.

Sally married James "Jim" W. Martin on Nov. 25, 1950 in Sidney, Nebraska.

Sally loved to spend her spare time fishing, especially while living in Alaska. She enjoyed gardening, was an avid reader, and appreciated a good crossword puzzle and lively games of cards.

She treasured her family including her children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, brothers and sister, nieces and nephews. She was adored by all of them as well. She will be remembered as a dignified, gracious, brave and very witty woman.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, and by her brothers Robert Anderson and Jim Anderson.

Sally is survived by her children including her son James "Jim" (Jana) Martin of Loveland, Colo., and her daughters Pauline "Pam" (Sam "Trip") Dunnuck of Laramie, and Patricia "Patti" Russell of Greeley, Colo.; by her grandchildren Lorin Mahon, Suzanne Bower, Samuel R. Dunnuck IV, Joshua Martin, Hannah Stephens, Amity Martin, Marissa Russell and five great-grandchildren.

In addition she is survived by her brother Gene (Doris) Anderson and her sister Shirley (Keith) Thurman, and by her sister-in law Gail Anderson all of Ten Sleep, and by her numerous nieces and nephews.

A memorial service for Sally will be held on Saturday Sept. 15 at 11 a.m. at the Ten Sleep United Methodist Church with Rev. Huston Green officiating. A lunch and reception will follow the service.

The family requests that memorials in her name be made to either the Ten Sleep Ambulance at P. O. Box 5 – Ten Sleep, WY 82442, or to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital at 501 St. Jude Place – Memphis, TN 38105.

Veile Mortuary of Worland is assisting the family with the arrangements.
