

ZULA ARNOLD ANDERSON
1905-1979

Researched and compiled by Faye Bell (SLC) 2012

Zula Anderson was born in 1905 to Bert and Mabel Jacobs Arnold of Ten Sleep, WY. She married Rouse W Anderson 4 June 1925 and the couple had 5 children: Robert, Gene, Shirley, James and Sally (Pat). Her maternal grandparents were Lewis and Stella Jacobs and her father, Bert Arnold, owned and operated a blacksmith shop in the middle of the town until he retired. She and Rouse bought into the farming business outside Ten Sleep East on Highway #16 and carried on with farming until about 1957 when they moved to Ten Sleep proper. Two of their sons continued farming, bought into another small area in the Ten Sleep Canyon and were diligent, worthwhile sons and heirs. Zula and Rouse enjoyed Masonic and Methodist member association and were actively involved in the education system as Rouse served on the School Board and Zula supported him. Her two oldest sons served in the military and her daughters were educated and held responsible, professional positions of employment. She passed away in 1979.

Memories: Zula was dignified and strong willed, anxious to be an example of industry and integrity and was exemplary in both areas. She never deviated from a once-proven behavior or style: i.e., she always wore her dark hair in a short bob and she remained a steady, well preserved figure in the community. Fb

Conversation Piece

If you are reading your newspaper about 8 o'clock this morning, you many think of me as being somewhere on the island of Cyprus in the Mediterranean Sea. It will be 5 p.m. there, and I'll be about to board a Greek ocean liner named MTS Orpheus for a tour of the Holy Land.

Some of you will immediately ask, "Are you with the Rev. Reginald Goff's group?" The answer to that is negative because I was not aware that he was hosting a group to the Holy Land. I found out, after my plans had been made, that Mr. and Mrs. Rouse Anderson of Ten Sleep will be with him. No doubt there are others from this area, but I don't know who they are. Zula dropped me a note last week saying she hoped to see me in Jerusalem. Her son Gene observed that was "a long way to go to see your neighbor."

This trip came up unexpectedly for me. At Christmas time I learned that my niece, Janet, and her husband, Dewey Parrott, who live in Denver, were going on a tour hosted by the minister of their Lutheran church. My mother was very interested, since going to the Holy Land had always been her dream and she had almost given up ever getting there. My husband said he wasn't interested in going and thought it best to stay and look after the ranch, but he urged me to go, and it didn't take any coaxing. In short, Mother and I checked with Janet, found there was still room in their group, (we made 16), sent our checks, each in the amount of $799, for the "Middle East Seminar Jet Cruise nine-day escorted and all-inclusive" tour, applied at once for our passports, were revaccinated for small-pox, and began planning what to include in the 44 pounds of luggage allowed us.

That's all the space for today.
