

BADER, ANNA-obituary

Worland Grit no. 15 April 10, 1919, page 10

Mrs. Anna Bader was born in Avonshire, Wales. August 1840, coming to America when three years of age. She married Benjamin L. Bader in 1859 at Lemonwier, Wis. She came to Tensleep about 25 years ago. The union was blessed with nine children of whom one has gone on before. The remaining, six of whom were present, mourn her loss.

Early in her youth, Mrs. Bader was instructed in the beautiful rites and teachings of the Episcopal church into which household of faith she was received by baptism—never deserting this form of worship.

Her husband departed this life in October 1886, leaving the responsibilities of the large family resting entirely upon her. How well she performed this duty the people of Tensleep can testify. In her 79th year on March 31, 1919, the call came to her from the great rewarder, sister come up higher and her spirit took its flight to the realms of Bliss, there to be received with her loved ones and forever to behold the face of her blessed Redeemer.

Funeral ceremonies were held at Tensleep on April 3rd, Rev. Jan J. LeFebre of Worland officiating, interment took place in the beautiful little cemetery on the hill side. A large number of sorrowing friends and acquaintances were in attendance to pay their last respects to the memory of a faithful mother and a constant friend.
