

BADER, FAY-obituary

Worland Grit no. 27 May 23, 1912, page 1

BOY DROWNS

A boy belonging to Fred Bader was drowned in the Nowood river near Tensleep last Saturday. The boy was on the bank of the stream when a portion of the bank, which had been undermined by the current, caved in and threw him into the water.

The funeral was held at Tensleep on Monday.

The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad loss.