

HUGH JAMISON BOYD
(1893-1972)

Hugh J. Boyd
Hugh J. Boyd, 78 of Ten Sleep died at Washakie Memorial Hospital Tuesday. He was born Dec. 7, 1893, in Stewartsville, Mo., the son of Thomas and Nancy Boyd.
He moved to Ten Sleep in 1947 and worked on ranches in the area before retiring several years ago. He was a veteran of World War I and a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.
Survivors include a sister, Mrs. Anna M. Knapp, and nephew, Ellis Knapp, both of Ten Sleep.
Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Friday at the Ten Sleep Seventh-day Adventist Church with the Rev. Howard Kildow officiating. Burial will follow in the Ten Sleep Cemetery.
Veile Mortuary is in charge of arrangements.

The following was researched and compiled by Faye Bell (SLC) 2012

Hugh Jamison Boyd was born December 1893 in Stewartsville, MO (WWI Registration Card dated June 1917) to Thomas and Isabella Green Boyd—both parents from Canada. His birth date comes from Social Security death notice. He had one brother, George A, and two sisters—Mary A and Anna M Boyd. He was single during WW I and served as a private in the Infantry. The data from the WWI Reg. card show him to be tall, medium weight, light blue eyes and dark brown hair. Hugh J Boyd joined his brother in Ten Sleep by 1947/48. He never married. His sister Anna Boyd Knapp lived on the same street as he did. He passed away in May 1972.

Memories: Hugh J Boyd loved little children and teased my small son by calling him "Butch". I never saw Hugh but what he was pleasant and even jolly. He never seemed to be a lonely man. I think Bob Wood (little Butch) will never forget Hugh Boyd. fb
