

Marjorie L. Cantleberry. Obituary, Northern Wyoming Daily News, Worland, Wyoming, July 11, 1996, page 2.

TEN SLEEP --- Longtime Big Horn Basin resident Marjorie L. Cantleberry, 70, died at her home in Ten Sleep on Tuesday, July 9.

She was born to Roy Neil and Catheryne (Schaff) Sweet on April 17, 1926 on her parents' farm east of Worland.

She lived on the farm until the family moved to Ten Sleep in 1931. She attended schools in Ten Sleep, but spent her senior year of high school in Worland, graduating from Washakie County High School in 1944. She then attended the Billings (Mont.) Business College for a year, then worked for the Showalter Studio in Worland.

On Aug. 3, 1946 she married Glenn C. Cantleberry in Laurel, Mont.

Following her marriage she moved to Thermopolis, where she and her husband owned and operated Glenn's Plumbing and Heating until 1963.

While living in Thermopolis, Mrs. Cantleberry was a 4-H leader and a member of the Hot Springs County Extension Club. She was also active in bowling leagues and enjoyed swimming.

In 1963, the Cantleberrys moved to Ten Sleep, where she was employed as the Ten Sleep High School secretary from 1971 to 1990.

Mrs. Cantleberry enjoyed spending time in the mountains, playing pinochle, doing all sorts of needlework, and visiting with friends and family.

Survivors include her mother of Ten Sleep; a son, Glenn of Thermopolis; a daughter, Judy K. Weekes of Dillon, Mont.; a sister, Joyce Outland of Worland; and four grandchildren, Roxanne Weekes of Ten Sleep, Damon Paul Adams of Dillon, Sheri Cantleberry, stationed at Fort Riley, Kan., and Jeremy Cantleberry of Cheyenne.

She was preceded death by her father, and by her husband in 1995.

The memorial service is scheduled for 10:30 a.m. Friday at the Ten Sleep Methodist Church, with the Rev. Shannon Martin officiating.

Cremation will take place, and the cremains will be buried in a private service at the Ten Sleep Cemetery.

Memorials in Mrs. Cantleberry's name may be sent to Stockgrowers State Bank, P.O. Box 790, Worland, 82401, for the purchase of athletic equipment for the Ten Sleep High School weight room.

Veile Mortuary of Worland is in charge of arrangements.
