Ione was raised in Wyoming with her sisters. She married Rulon Cash Duncan and they lived in California where their first 6 children were born. She joined her husband's faith and was baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints a few years after their marriage. Missing the open air, they moved to Bear River City Utah where they had their 7th child. Ione was a beloved mother and grandmother. She always shared her talents of gardening, painting, quilting, music, cooking, and writing. She died peacefully in her sleep in her Utah home
