TEN SLEEP --- Harold D. Ainsworth, 82, formerly of Ten Sleep, died Saturday, January 9, 1999 at his home in Milton-Freewater, Ore.

He was born Jan. 16, 1916 in Mount Pleasant, Iowa, the son of Ray W.D. and Edith M. (Brown) Ainsworth. He married Mary "Malvina" Morton on Jan. 30, 1941 at Boulder, Colo.

He was raised at Big Trails, south of Ten Sleep, where he attended schools. Following his marriage he ranched in Wyoming for a number of years before moving to Pendleton, Ore. While living in Pendleton, he worked for the Harris Pine Mills for 24 years. Following his retirement, the couple moved to Rogue River, Ore., and in 1993 they moved to Milton-Freewater. He enjoyed woodworking and creating miniature replicas of covered wagons and farm equipment.

He is survived by his wife Malvina Ainsworth of Milton-Freewater, Ore.; two sons, Charles Ainsworth of Tempe, Ariz., and Don Ainsworth of Pendleton, Ore.; one daughter, Loretta Pline of Milton-Freewater, Ore.; five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, a son, Keith LeRoy Ainsworth, a sister, Ruby Gifford Dabbs, and a brother, Herbert W. Ainsworth.

Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. Thursday, Jan. 14, at the Worland Seventh Day Adventist Church with Pastor Tobin Dodge officiating. There will be a private burial at the Ten Sleep Cemetery.
