

Carl M Bader.

Obituary, Northern Wyoming Daily News, Worland, Wyoming, September 14, 2004, page 2.

WORLAND --- Carl M. Bader, 50, died in Cheyenne on September 9, 2004.

He was born Aug. 24, 1954 in Worland to Ben and Florence Bader. He attended school in Ten Sleep and graduated in 1973.

After graduation he worked at the power plant in Grange. A few months later he enlisted in the Army where he spent four years. He came back to Worland where he worked at Crown Cork & Seal. He returned to Ten Sleep to spend most of his time working on ranches in the area.

In 1990 he married Jolene Day, but was later divorced. The couple had two children, Megan Jean and Jed L.

Carl is survived by his children and his ex-wife, Jolene; parents, Ben and Florence Bader of Ten Sleep; six siblings, Lyle of Worland, Dale of Thermopolis, Rhonda Ronning of Ten Sleep, Pamela Conley of Buffalo, Kristy Pavlus of Worland and Sandra Bader of Stevensville, Mont., and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.

Graveside funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 14 at the Ten Sleep Cemetery with Reverend Grover Briggs of the United Methodist Church officiating.

Memorial donations may be made to a fund for the children in care of Bryant Funeral Home, P.O. Box 524, Worland, WY 82401.

Bryant Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.
Also in The Ten Sleep Pioneer, September 24, 2004, page 2.