

WILLIAM FRANK BULL

1931-2003

Researched and Compiled by Faye Bell (SLC) 2012

William [Billy] Frank Bull was born to Frank and Mellie [Jones] Bull in Ten Sleep in 1931 and joined 4 sisters in the family: Marion, Elaine, Millicent, and Bessie. Later, another sister Nona L Bull joined the Frank Bull family. He attended Ten Sleep schools and graduated from Ten Sleep High School 1949. He was a good student and a member of the Pioneer basketball team in 1947 which team took the State Championships for the "C" class school that it was. Bill Bull never married and overall, was a solitary figure. He was living with his sister Elaine Calkins when he died in Worland, WY in 2003.

Memories: Bill Bull was always well groomed and courteous. In the schoolroom where I knew him, he walked a careful, unobtrusive path. fvb

William Frank Bull

WORLAND — William Frank Bull, 72, died at his home November 15, 2003.

William was born April 30, 1931 in Ten Sleep, Wyo. to Frank and Mellie (Jones) Bull. He received his education in Ten Sleep and graduated in 1950.

He then moved to Seattle, Wash. where he served as a Merchant Marine for three years. William also served his country during the Korean Conflict.

He then returned to the Worland/ Ten Sleep area, working for several stockmen in the area. William spent many years in the oil fields as a motor man. He was an exceptionally talented mechanic, helping many of his friends and family with engine problems.

In the past few years he had become an outstanding gardener, growing many beautiful flowers and sharing produce from his vegetable garden. Throughout his life William loved hunting, fishing and feeding the wildlife around his home.

He was a member of the American Legion.

He was preceded in death by his parents; sisters Marion Culver, Millie Buchanan, Bessie Everett; and brother Donald Bull.

William is survived by his sisters, Elaine Calkins of Worland, and Nona (Wendell) Lyman of Basin; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held November 19, 11 a.m. at the United Methodist Church in Ten Sleep. Pastor Chuck Cooper will officiate. Burial will follow at the Ten Sleep Cemetery with the Worland VFW and American Legion in charge of Military honors.
