

RUTH C FRALEY

(1919-1978)

Ruth C. Fraley

Funeral services for Ruth Charolette Fraley, 58, will be Saturday at 1 p.m. at St. Alban's Episcopal Church.

Mrs. Fraley died Nov. 22 at Washakie Memorial Hospital. She was born in Buffalo on Dec. 19, 1919 the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Watts.

She was raised in Buffalo graduating in 1937. She attended Heiman Commercial College and studied accounting from LaSalle University. Mrs. Fraley had completed a course in journalism with the Newspaper Institute of New York.

Mrs. Fraley was a member of Golden Rod Chapter of the Eastern Star, Silver Rebekah Lodge No. 6 and Royal Neighbors of America all of Buffalo and the B&PW Club of Worland.

She married Harold D. Fraley in 1952 in Casper. She and her husband moved to Worland in 1970. Mrs. Fraley had been employed at the DAILY NEWS for the past seven years.

She is survived by her husband of Worland; two daughters, Jonalee Mauck of Great Fall, Mont. and Dorothe Fraley of Aurora, Colo.; two brothers, Walter F. Watts of Casper and Donald C. Watts of Helena, Mont.; four grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Her parents and one brother preceded her in death.

Burial will be in the Ten Sleep Cemetery.

