

Geraldine E. Frison
1927-2013

Geraldine E. Frison, born Geraldine E. Watkins, passed away February 25th, 2013. She was born in Glendale California to Missy (Mary) and Wallace Watkins on June 11th 1927.

Her mother passed soon after her birth and she was raised by her father. He was a traveling salesman and he would leave her at an orphanage for short periods when he was away.

After high school Gerry went to Pasadena City College and received a degree in X-ray technology. While there she met Gerald Frison and they married May 28th, 1955.

Geraldine and Gerald had a horse stable in Lacanada, California. During this time they had a baby elephant living in the stable. They moved to La Habra soon after.

Geraldine began working for a veterinarian and together they adopted an African lion which Geraldine and Gerald raised at their new home in La Habra. Beaver was Gerry's second lion.

In 1995 Gerald passed away and left a big hole in Gerry's life.

Gerry was devoted to any animal she saw and wanted to save them all.
