GREET RITES AT TEN SLEEP TODAY

Last rites for Mrs. William J. Greet, 80, are set for 2:30 p.m. today in the Ten Sleep Methodist church. The Rev. R. F. Goff at Worland will officiate. He will be assisted by Paul Curtis and the Rev. Grier Hunt. Burial will be in the Ten Sleep cemetery, Veile's in charge.

Elizabeth Lewis was born Nov. 17, 1873 at Trimdon, county of Durham, England, daughter of Richard Lewis and Elizabeth Barrow. While she was still a very young child, her parents came to the United States, and lived in Ohio for a short time; then, in 1883, when she was ten years old, they came to Rock Springs where she grew to young womanhood.

On April 25, 1894, she was united in marriage to William J. Greet, also of Rock Springs. That summer, they came with a team and wagon to the home of Will's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Greet at Spring Creek near Ten Sleep. They spent several summers in the Ten Sleep area and went back to Rock Springs for the winter season.

In March 1905 Mr. and Mrs. Greet moved to Red Lodge, Mont. where they resided until 1923 when they moved to Chicago, Ill. Greet retired in October, 1949, and they came to Worland where they have since made their home.

On April 25 they observed their 60 wedding anniversary with an "open house" at which time many of their relatives and friends called.

On June 7, Mrs. Greet fractured her hip and the next day was taken to the Casper hospital. Thursday she went into a coma until she died on Monday morning at 5:30.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Greet is survived by a son, Howard of Chicago, Ill.; a daughter Mrs. Minnie Parent, Ferrisberg, Vt.; a brother Ben Lewis, Rock Springs; three grandchildren, three great grandchildren and a number of nieces and nephews.

Relatives planning to be here for the services are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Greet and two daughters from Chicago, Ill.; Ben Lewis and other relatives from Rock Springs; Mrs. Fred Holland, sr. and her son Fred Holland, jr. of Casper.
