An infant boy of Mr. and Mrs. Lynch died Saturday morning and was buried in our cemetery here yesterday. The little one lived only three hours. It seemed a fine bright boy and the family are grieving over its loss. They have the sincere sympathy of all.

Wyoming Semi-Weekly Tribune no. 97 October 31, 1905, page 3

Helen Lynch, the little daughter of M. L. Lynch and wife, Catherine, died last Thursday morning and was buried on Friday at noon. The sympathy of the entire community is with this family in their double affliction, they having buried an infant son five days previous to the death of this child.
