PASSES AWAY

Edward C. Mills passed away Saturday, July 27, at Ten Sleep, Wyoming after a lingering illness. He was a son of Benjamin A. and Eliza Mills and was born March 29, 1867, and was the last one of a family of six sons. He was a twin of the late Charles Perry Mills. Most of his life, except eight years, was spent in Wyoming. When he was a young lad, he rode a horse westward with relatives and spent his earlier years with relatives near Ten Sleep, Wyoming.

He breathed the spirit of the Old West, having ridden the range for many years. He was a member of the Fairport Lodge #472 of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

He was married to Miss Vernie Early, January 9, 1888, and to this union three sons were born; Harry, Roy and Elmer, all of Ten Sleep, Wyoming. He was later married to Mrs. Lavina Kier, and to this union four children were born; Bob, Georgia, Junior, and Leander, who passed away when quite young.

He is survived by several grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Burial was Tuesday, July 30, in the family lot of the Ten Sleep, Wyoming Cemetery.
