

MCCREERY, LEONA MAY 1918-1920

Compiled from "Vanguards of the Valley" by Faye V. Bell page 429 THE MCCREERY
MACABRE

Leona McCreery, Leo's twin sister drowned in the Canyon Creek when she was a youngster, Oct 7, 1920 and there is a small grave in the Ten Sleep cemetery to testify to the grief it brought Annie and Zina McCreery and the child's siblings.

1920 census, Leona is listed as one year old and the sister of Leo. Parents are Zina McCreery born 1888 in Michigan and Anna McCreery born 1889 in Iowa.

1930 census does not list Leona, but does include Leo.
