

George McMillan
1896 - 1968

Ten Sleep Man Found Dead

A 71-year-old Ten Sleep man, found dead near the rodeo grounds there this morning, apparently died of a heart attack, according to Washakie county coroner Arnold Viele.

George McMillan, born in England April 2, 1896, died at approximately 10:30 a.m., Viele said.

The body was discovered by Mrs. Dutch Mills of Ten Sleep who notified authorities.

Mr. McMillan was a retired sheepherder.

Survivors include a sister, Mrs. Alice Stenning of Seattle, Wash. and other sisters in England and South Africa.

Graveside Services For George McMillan

Graveside services will be held at 2 p.m. Monday at the Ten Sleep Cemetery for George "Scotty" McMillan, 71 of Ten Sleep. Rev. Ron Prunty of the Episcopal church will be in charge.

Mr. McMillan died Thursday morning of a heart attack.