Justin B. Moses

SACRAMENTO, Calif. — Justin Moses, 78, formerly of Ten Sleep died in Sacramento, Calif. Dec. 22, 2005.

He was born to Millard Fillmore and Fae (Caines) Moses. Dec. 6, 1927. He graduated from Ten Sleep High School (valedictorian) in 1945.

He joined the U.S. Army and was sent to Ft. Belvoir, Va., then, to Germany with the Army Intelligence Corps.

After his discharge from the Army, he attended and graduated from the University of Wyoming with a B.S. in Geological Engineering (1952). While at Laramie, Justin met and married Lynn Barton Davis of New York City, Aug. 1952. The couple had one child, Sean Daniel True, currently of Boston, Mass., and were divorced. He was employed thereafter by the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC) and spent two years in Peru in the Andes Mountains. In Lima, Peru, he met and married his second wife, Marian. He worked for the AEC until the commission was dissolved. He then became a member of the Army Corps of Engineers in Sacramento and was Chief of two divisions simultaneously. One of his assignments was being the head engineer on the New Melones Dam in California. He has resided in Sacramento since 1963.

He is survived by his sister, Faye Virginia Bell of Salt Lake City, Utah; his son, Sean, of Boston; his step-daughter, Liz Ginsberg of Gold River, Calif.; numerous nieces and nephews, all who have tremendous respect and appreciation for his character and accomplishments.
