THERMOPOLIS — Charlotte Farley Munsell, a former Ten Sleep resident, died Friday at Hot Springs Memorial Hospital in Thermopolis. She was 69.

Mrs. Munsell was born April 30, 1912 in Wilson, Wyo., a daughter of Joseph and Anna Farley. She married Vern Munsell at Lewiston, Mont. in 1944.

The couple lived in Ten Sleep until his death in 1970.

Mrs. Munsell was a resident at Cayon Hills Nursing Manor at the time of his death.

She is survived by a step-daughter, Laverna Huber of Washington state; by a sister, Betty Durtsche of Basin; and by two step-grandchildren.

The funeral will be at 11 a.m., Tuesday in the Ten Sleep Community Church, Rev. J. Wellington Wetzler presiding. Burial will be in the Ten Sleep Cemetery.

Atwood Family Mortuary is in charge of arrangements.
