

*Clyde Harvard and wife (former Florence Butts) of Bridger Creek country.
Clyde was recognized as one of the best cow hands ever in the basin.*

Clyde Harvard.
1888- 1960

Obituary, Northern Wyoming Daily News, Worland, Wyoming, May 16, 1960.

Clyde Harvard, 71, Ten Sleep, Dies

Clyde Harvard of Ten Sleep died at the Washakie County Memorial hospital Monday morning. He was 71 years of age.

He was born July 13, 1888, in Long Pine, Neb., but had been a resident of Ten Sleep for many years.

Among his survivors are his widow, Mrs. Florence Harvard, Ten Sleep; one son, Charles Harvard, Seligman, Ariz.; four brothers, Lewis Harvard of Seattle, Wash., Frank Harvard of Lander, Harry Harvard of Worland, Joe Harvard of Ten Sleep; two sisters, Mrs. Richard Redland of Ten Sleep and Mrs. Nick Geis of Worland. He was preceded in death by two sisters and a brother.

Funeral services have been set tentatively for Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Ten Sleep with burial in the Ten Sleep Cemetery.

Last Rites Set for Clyde Harvard, Northern Wyoming Daily News, Worland, Wyoming, May 18, 1960.

TEN SLEEP -- Funeral services and burial rites for Clyde Harvard will be held at the Methodist church here Thursday at 2 p.m. Harvard died in a Worland hospital Monday.

The family requests that, should friends desire, contributions may be made to a memorial fund of the church.