TEN SLEEP -- Bernice Lyman, 78, of Ten Sleep, died at her home on Wednesday, March 17, 1999.

She was born on July 30, 1920 in Lovell, the daughter of Earl and Emma Sprague. While she was young, the family moved to Otto, where she received her education. She married Boyd S. Lyman on March 15, 1938 in Otto, where they made their home until 1948, when they moved to Ten Sleep. She raised her family in Ten Sleep, loved gardening, fishing, quilting and cooking.

She was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, where she served in numerous leadership positions through her life.

She is survived by her husband, Boyd, of Ten Sleep; three sons, Mark S. and Dwight (Betty) Lyman of Ten Sleep and Clark S. Lyman of Riverton; two daughters, Virgie (Ted) Lasater of St. George, Utah, and Sally (Bill) Davis of Billings, Montana; 30 grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents and one son, Bradley; three brothers and three sisters.

Graveside funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Saturday, March 20 at the Ten Sleep Cemetery with Bishop Terril Mills conducting the service.
